

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has greatly improved our time at home. Please, please, please, don't make it easier for telemarketers to call. Indiana's law is the best thing I've seen from government, state or federal, to improve our quality of life.